

STRONG TOWNS

Strong Towns is a fundamental rethinking of how we work together to build lasting wealth and prosperity within our communities. Explore ways we can create common goals that support long-term financial solvency, by looking differently at land, transportation systems, infrastructure and the built environment — resources that must be viewed as shared assets.

KENTUCKY HERITAGE COUNCIL STRONG TOWNS CONFERENCE

Strategies for community growth and development based on 21st-century challenges

September 24-25, 2015
Louisville

Presented in partnership with Preservation Kentucky, Preservation Louisville, the Kentucky Main Street Program and Friends of Kentucky Main Street, with support from KHC member Nana Lampton and Hardscuffle Inc.

Strong Towns President Charles L. "Chuck" Marohn Jr., professional engineer and member of the American Institute of Certified Planners ♦ Jim Kumon, executive director of the Incremental Development Alliance ♦ R. John Anderson, CNU, co-founder and principal for Anderson|Kim Architecture + Urban Design ♦ Jim Lindberg, senior director of Preservation Green Lab, National Trust for Historic Preservation ♦ Craig A. Potts, State Historic Preservation Officer and executive director of the Kentucky Heritage Council ♦ Kitty Dougoud, Kentucky Main Street Program administrator ♦ Steve Ervin, Paducah planning director

9a-5:30p Sept. 24 and 9a-12:30p Sept. 25
Kentucky Center for the Performing Arts,
Bomhard Theater, 501 W. Main Street
Cost: $25, good for both days; $35 at the door
Hotel: Hilton Garden Inn Louisville Downtown
Registration & information: www.heritage.ky.gov

With support from _____

